

HO-7 HOME INSURANCE

Mobile Home Insurance (U.S.)
Understanding Coverage & Perils

WHAT IS A MOBILE HOME?

HUD REGULATED

Built after June 15, 1976, following strict HUD Code safety standards.

FACTORY BUILT

Constructed on a permanent chassis for strength and transportability.

VERSATILE PLACEMENT

Can be situated on private land, leased land, or mobile home parks.

WHAT IS HO-7 INSURANCE?

SPECIALIZED PROTECTION

Designed specifically for manufactured and modular homes.

WEATHER RESILIENCE

Addresses higher exposure to wind, hail, and storm damage.

UNIQUE RISK COVERAGE

Covers transportation risks and non-permanent foundations.

HO-7 VS STANDARD

CONSTRUCTION FOCUS

Unlike HO-3 policies for site-built homes, HO-7 is tailored specifically for the unique assembly of manufactured housing.

VULNERABILITY PROFILE

Addresses the increased susceptibility to wind and storm damage inherent in mobile home structures.

FOUNDATION RISKS

Provides coverage for homes on non-permanent foundations, a risk typically excluded from standard homeowners insurance.
